News in Brief

Cuban Chiefs Alerted for General Strike

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Continental government troops stood alert today with orders to act decisively if Fidel Castro's rebels use their "ultimate weapon" — a general strike call.

The 7,700 policemen and 22,000-man armed forces were ordered to take "whatever steps necessary" to break a strike and crush any outbreaks of violence that might develop on this sixth anniversary of President Fulgencio Batista's last military coup.

Castro has threatened a general strike at any moment. The rebel mountain guerrillas are reported running short of arms, and Castro has declared that a general strike would be the one sure to topple Batista.

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP) — Ingrid Bergman and Swedish millionaire Lars Schmidt say they will spend the summer together on a small island off Sweden's west coast. But they won't talk about wedding plans.

Standing with Ingrid in the courtyard of his big estate, the 45-year-old play producer told newsmen he recently bought a house on the island in the Swedish Archipelago.

Ingrid, 40, is estranged from her husband, Italian movie director Roberto Rossellini.

HONG KONG (AP) — North Korean soldiers have been taking over from withdrawing Red Chinese "volunteers" in the past few days, Peiping radio said today.

The broadcast said the first Communist Chinese elements will complete their pullout before April 30. The size of the group was not indicated.

24 Neighbors Offer Blood For Youngster

ONSTED, Mich. (AP) — Blood offered by 24 neighbors may course through the body of Susan Kurtz for five hours Tuesday while the 11-year-old girl undergoes a heart operation.

The neighbors offered their blood within a few hours after it became known that Susan must undergo the operation in a Cleveland hospital.

Starting today, Susan's neighbors in this southern Michigan village are to go by car caravan to Cleveland to give their aid.

Lloyd Kurtz, the girl's father, said surgeons told him Susan would not live six months unless she was operated on and that the odds were 5-1 against the operation's success.

The operation, to be performed by Dr. Frederick S. Cross, a Cleveland heart specialist, calls for use of a mechanical heart and lung to take over for Susan's own heart during the five hours that surgeons estimate the operation will take. Blood from donors will pass through the mechanical heart.

At the age of 3 Susan had an artery transplanted from her right arm to her heart to replace a defective part of the heart. The artery failed to grow as the rest of her body grew and the new operation became necessary.

Van Wert Couple Killed in Crash

CELINA (AP) — A Van Wert couple was killed just north of nearby Fort Recovery today when the car in which the husband and wife were riding went out of control on a curve and hit a bridge abutment.

The victims were Orville Eber, 31, and his wife, 42. Sheriff's deputies said the driver was Richard M. Pollock, 37, also of Van Wert. He was reported in serious condition in the Jay County Hospital, Portland, Ind. The accident occurred on Ohio 49 only about a mile from the Indiana state line.

Indonesia Troops Make Landing To Crush Rebel Units

SINGAPORE (AP) — Indonesian Central government troops stormed ashore at Bengkalis on the east coast of central Sumatra today, revolutionary sources reported.

The sources said rebel troops of Lt. Col. Achmad Hussein clashed with the invaders but retreated into surrounding jungle to begin guerrilla activities.

The landings were made about 100 miles west of Singapore at the mouth of the crocodile-infested Siak River leading to the American-owned Caltex oil field headquarters at Pekanbaru.

Dulles Arrives For SEATO Talk

U.S. Diplomat Is Mum On Soviet Criticism

MANILA (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles arrived today for the annual SEATO foreign ministers' meeting, which is expected to focus on a possible linkup with similar anti-Communist alliances in the West and Middle East.

In contrast to other ministers here for the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization parley, Dulles declined to comment on the latest Soviet proposals for the Far East situation.

Asked whether he planned to confer with his colleagues on the Soviet Union's latest call for a summit conference, Dulles said, "I came here to discuss the problem of SEATO. I expect that will occupy us fully."

Dulles explained he had not seen official reports on the Soviet demand for an atomic-free zone in Asia and an Asian collective security system, broadcast by Moscow radio in an assault on SEATO. Other foreign ministers rejected both proposals speedily.

THE U.S. secretary said the three-day parley, which opens Tuesday, must strengthen further the fabric of this regional defense organization.

High on the agenda is a scheme for linking SEATO with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Baghdad (Middle East) Pact. The Philippines made the proposal. Britain is opposed to it.

The ministers also will discuss the question of more economic and military aid for SEATO's Asian members.

Member nations are the Philippines, the United States, Britain, France, Pakistan, Australia, New Zealand and Thailand.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd said that he wanted some side discussions with Dulles on a summit conference, the Indonesian revolt and "a great many other problems."

'Churchnik' Fired In Sunday Rites

BALTIMORE (AP) — After a countdown of the Ten Commandments, a "rocket" blasted off on a string of rubber bands to the ceiling of Baltimore's St. Mary's Episcopal Church Sunday.

All eyes were solemna. As the "Churchnik" began to smoke at takeoff because of dry ice dropped into water, the Rev. George F. Packard told his flock: "Confirmation launches us into the flight of life and the fuel is Holy Communion."

The eight-foot, silver-colored cardboard rocket had three orange fins. It bore an orange cross and the word "soul."

Lawyer Fails To Show Up For Questioning in Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thurman A. Whiteside, Miami lawyer, failed to appear today for scheduled questioning by a House committee investigating the Federal Communications Commission.

Chairman Harris (D-Ark) declined to report immediately what, if any, word he had received from Whiteside. Harris ordered a closed meeting of the committee.

Whiteside had not been subpoenaed for more questioning on his relationship with former FCC Commissioner Richard A. Mack.

Neither Whiteside nor his attorney, Richard A. Hunt, was reported registered at the Washington hotel where the Miami businessman-lawyer had been staying.

Whiteside appeared twice last mouth of the crocodile-infested Siak River leading to the American-owned Caltex oil field headquarters at Pekanbaru.

Informants said 4,000 more troops were crammed aboard transports waiting to land at Dumai, one of the two Caltex terminals evacuated today on the advice of the Jakarta government.

Caltex announced it is ceasing production in the oil fields of rebellious central Sumatra and suspending operations.

A SPOKESMAN for the company in Singapore said the action was taken on the advice of the Indonesian Central government in Jakarta.

Caltex was the first major American casualty in the economic struggle touched off by rebel attempts to bring the Jakarta government of President Sukarno to terms.

Rebel Premier Sjafruddin Prawiranegara's regime on Sumatra recently issued an order to all foreign firms to halt oil shipments and royalty payments to the Jakarta government.

Halting oil shipments would start an economic squeeze that rebel leaders hope will cripple the financially pressed Central government.

A Caltex executive said the company is evacuating the women and children among the nearly 400 Americans at two terminals, Dumai and Pakning.

The troop landings were about 90 miles downstream from Pekanbaru, and about 200 miles across the jungle-covered island from Padang, rebel center.

Sheriff Seeks Slayings of 2 Deputies

COPPERHILL, Tenn. (AP) — "We haven't caught them yet. But we will. We won't quit until we do." So said Polk County Sheriff Bud Payne of the ambush slayings of two of his deputies.

Payne said he had several leads to the Saturday night shotgun killings of Louis Wright, 49, and Bob Rogers, 65, but not enough evidence to make arrests.

"So far we've had to confine a lot of our investigation to questioning persons who were in the beer tavern when the deputies were ambushed outside," Payne said.

Wright and Rogers, the father of 10 children, were killed as they stepped from their patrol car on a routine check of the tavern located on State Highway 68 about six miles north of here.

The probability that politics may have entered into the slaying was voiced by Copperhill Mayor Emil Greene.

"I think it was politics," Greene said, "and most of those with whom I have talked agree."

Payne said he was uncertain as to the cause. "I have heard speculation it may have been politics. But it may have been personal—a deputy sheriff is bound to make enemies."

A search of the barren Copper Basin Hills after the deputies were killed proved fruitless.

Navy Plagued By Delays on Vanguard Firing

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Frustrated by a faulty weather report, a crane operator's absence at a crucial moment of need, and a series of minor technical breakdowns, the Navy today prepared a new attempt to launch its Vanguard space rocket.

A new firing schedule was under discussion in conferences between officials of the Naval Research Laboratory in Washington, the Martin Co., builder of the big rocket, in Baltimore, and the Air Force missile test center here.

It was conceivable that a new attempt to fire the three-stage rocket, and possibly to place a grapefruit size satellite in an orbit, might come within a day or two.

It might also develop, should the Vanguard experts find that the repeated delays have weakened any part of the sensitive vehicle, that there would be a considerable postponement.

The Vanguard rocket came within 35 seconds of launching Saturday, shortly after 3 p. m.

THEN, IT WAS learned from informed sources, the so-called umbilical line, the missile's last link with the ground, failed to disconnect.

The crane operator who was to have been on hand for such an emergency was missing. As a result there was a costly delay.

Similarly, a "hold" or temporary delay in the approaches to ward launching time was ordered on the basis of a weather report indicating high winds aloft.

At the time the Navy received the wind report the weather officer said it might be in error.

Vanguard officials could not afford to take a chance. The Vanguard rocket is so tall and slender that winds over 15 miles an hour are a menace to it. A "hold" was ordered and there was a long wait.

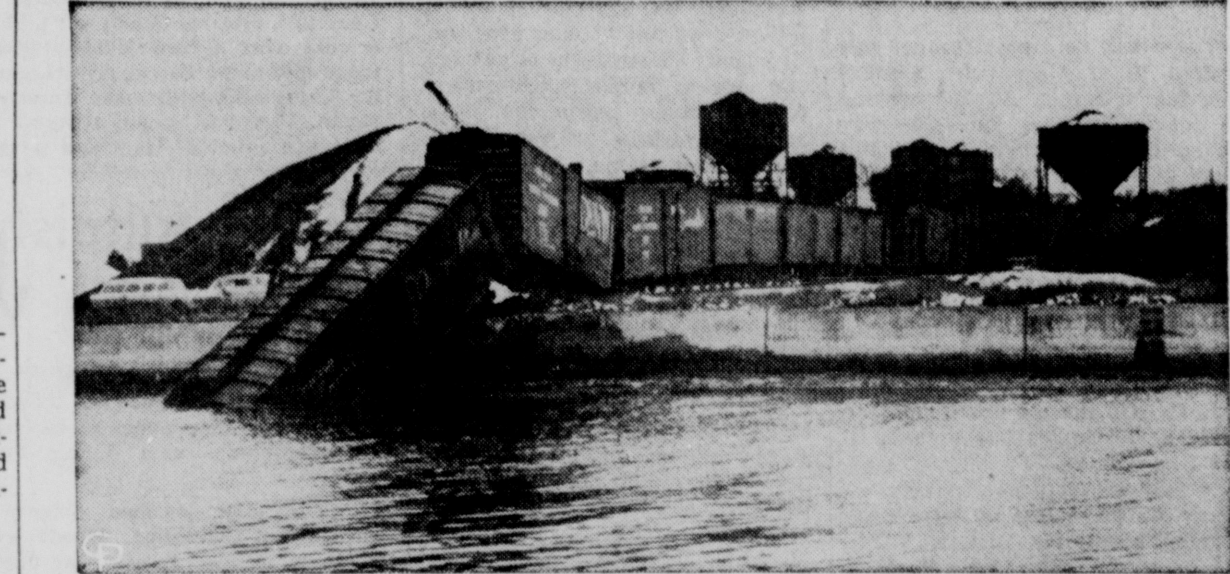

Finally a weather balloon was sent aloft. It refuted the wind forecast. Almost immediately the countdown resumed.

O'Neill Says Ike's New Road Plan To Shave Idle List

COLUMBUS (AP) — Gov. C. William O'Neill said today prompt action on President Eisenhower's highway proposal would help relieve unemployment in Ohio.

The governor, recuperating in Florida from a heart attack, commented on the President's proposal for Congress to allocate more than $2 billion in federal funds to states for highway building.

Sen. W. Conrad, O'Neill's press secretary, relayed the governor's remarks to newsmen following a telephone conversation. He said: "Ohio is prepared to put additional extensive highway projects under construction if the federal government allocates additional money. If such additional allocation is to help in the present employment situation, however, it must be made without delay."

TWIN RIVERS, LAST STOP — A Chicago & Northwestern freight train — apparently unmanned — moved out of the Calumet switching yards at Manitowish, Wis., passed through the city and then plunged into Twin rivers, seven miles north of Manitowish. The train's crew told police they had left the engine idling while they were having breakfast in the roundhouse.

40 Witnesses Due in Probe

Kohler Labor Dispute Still Being Debated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate rackets probes called 40 witnesses today to tell about an economic boycott pushed by the United Auto Workers as part of their strike against the Kohler Co.

First they planned further questioning of Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer.

The UAW called the strike against the Wisconsin bathroom fixtures company in April 1954. The plant was closed for a time, but later was reopened with non-strikers and new employees.

So far the hearings have centered around acts of violence and vandalism in the strike. Each side has blamed the other.

During the weekend Walter Reuther, UAW president, released a letter to Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz) urging "sanity" in the investigation of the strike so that the hearings do not "continue to deteriorate into a political brawl and name-calling contest."

An emotionally explosive atmosphere in these hearings can only create further bitterness between the Kohler Co. and its striking employees, and make a sane, sensible and just settlement of this dispute more difficult," Reuther wrote.

No comment was available immediately from Goldwater. He and Reuther, long-time foes, have hurled charges of "liar" and "coward" at each other.

In his letter to the senator, Reuther said the UAW "made every possible effort to minimize violence" in the Kohler strike. But he conceded that some members violated that policy in the heat of emotion and under what he called the company's provocation.

Artist Dying; Tribal Curse Given Blame

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Australia's famous aboriginal artist, Albert Namatjira, today was reported slowly dying from a tribal curse.

The Sydney Daily Mirror said that many people in Alice Springs, where the artist is hospitalized, believe that Arunta tribesmen "pointed the bone" at him — an ancient aboriginal method of doing away with offenders.

The bone is pointed in a special ceremony and the victim traditionally weakens and dies.

The Mirror said that Namatjira, once a husky, strapping man, has wasted away and seldom speaks now. It said it is believed the bone was pointed at the artist because he obtained full citizenship rights last year. The tribe of aborigines opposes defection to the white "invaders."

Namatjira was admitted to the Alice Springs Hospital about eight months ago after he had burned his left hand in his camp fire while sleeping. The hand became infected and doctors amputated the index finger. He was discharged at the end of the year but later came back. A hospital spokesman said doctors can find no medical explanation for his present condition.

Sturm & Dillard To Receive $155,767 in Road Damages

The case of the appropriation by the State of Ohio of an easement and land for highway purposes over the property of the Sturm & Dillard Co. has been settled out of court for $155,767.

The state originally filed a deposit for this easement and land of $60,000.

A total of $5,557 was paid for the actual land used by the highway and the 200 foot easement on either side of the roadbed. An extra large easement was needed since sand and gravel which underlies the area is more likely to cave in than average ground. Actual ground taken was 13.72 acres, half of which was used for the roadbed.

For structures the state paid $2,425.

Buildings included a corn shed, tool shed and a septic tank. The major part of the settlement was for damages incurred, amounting to $147,785. The extensive damages included loss of a dredge operation which brought sand into the plant. Now a dragline (dry digging) system must be used requiring trucks and more men.

Auto Crashes Injure Three

Three persons were injured, none seriously, in two auto crashes in the Ashville area Saturday evening.

The first accident came at 5:45 p. m. involving cars operated by John M. Groce, 81, and Agnes Williams, 63, both of Ashville. Groce suffered a lacerated left hand and Mrs. Williams received possible back injuries.

Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff said the Groce auto apparently pulled away from a curb and crashed into the side of the Williams car. Both vehicles were slightly damaged the deputy said.

The other accident was at 6:10 p. m. on Route 316 and Cromley Road, Virginia Irwin, 27, Ashville, suffered a lacerated left arm and possible chest injuries when her car went out of control and smashed into a utility pole.

MRS. IRWIN told Deputy Radcliff that she was rounding a curve on Cromley Road when her car brakes suddenly failed. She said the car veered off the highway.

Deputy Radcliff said the front end of the car was heavily damaged.

Koreans Agree To Return Downed American Jet Pilot

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — North Korea today agreed to return a U.S. Air Force pilot shot down over the demilitarized zone last Thursday by Communist gunfire. No date for the release was given.

The Communist announcement came at a meeting of the Military Armistice Commission at which the U.N. Command warned it would shoot down any Red planes crossing the truce line.

Capt. Leon Pfeiffer of Kenosha, Wis., who parachuted from the stricken Sabre Jet into Communist territory, was being given "humanitarian treatment," the Communist delegates said.

Communist representatives said Pfeiffer was in good health indicating that he was not wounded.

The U.N. delegate, Gen. Olaf Kyster, admitted that Pfeiffer's and other American planes had violated the demilitarized zone but told the Reds it was because of

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) testified today for an accelerated federal public works program and declared, "what we want is action, not credit, not an issue. We want to get rid of the issue by putting people on jobs."

The Senate Democratic leader was the first witness at a Public Works Committee hearing on a resolution he and 65 other senators are sponsoring to put the Senate on record as favoring a speedup of civil public works projects.

The Texan said the resolution covered $4 billion already appropriated for such projects as dams, river and harbor improvements and public buildings.

Johnson noted that President Eisenhower on Saturday "announced some steps to pump new vigor into the economy."

"I believe most of us would endorse those steps insofar as they have been explained up to this point," he said.

"IN RETURN, I believe we should let him know that we endorse the fullest practicable use of his resources to battle unemployment."

Johnson and the other senators have introduced a second resolution to be considered by the Armed Services Committee. It covers $3 billion already voted for military construction projects.

The Democratic leader told the Public Works Committee "the question before us involves a high degree of urgency."

"There are men and women out of work—at least five million of them. Their sources of income are vanishing rapidly," he said.

Johnson said he did not contend that the two resolutions introduced in the Senate last Thursday would be the complete answer to the economic slump.

"This is a first step," he said, "other proposals are to follow."

While Democrats and some Republicans clamored for more, President Eisenhower ordered a speedup of government construction projects for which money is available, and announced immediately.

A-Sub Leaves England

PORTLAND, England (AP) — The American nuclear-powered submarine Skate ended a five-day stay at this British naval base today and sailed for France.

"mistakes and carelessness on the part of the pilots."

KYSTER protested the shooting was an "unnecessary armed attack" and warned that Communist aircraft violating U.N. territory also would be fired upon "if these violations are not due to navigational error."

Kyster emphasized at a press conference later that this was not a new policy.

The North Korean delegate charged U.N. forces had violated the demilitarized zone 588 times since the 1953 armistice to spy on Communist territory.

The Korean Maj. Gen. Kang Sang Ho, charged that the latest U.N. violations were "along with a series of provocative acts by your side. . . in converting South Korea into a United States atomic war base."

The Communist delegates said Pfeiffer's Sabre Jet was shot down because the pilot disregarded Communist warning fire by continuing to "perpetrate hostile acts at low altitude."

THEN, IT WAS learned from informed sources, the so-called umbilical line, the missile's last link with the ground, failed to disconnect.

The crane operator who was to have been on hand for such an emergency was missing. As a result there was a costly delay.

Similarly, a "hold" or temporary delay in the approaches toward launching time was ordered on the basis of a weather report indicating high winds aloft.

At the time the Navy received the wind report the weather officer said it might be in error. Vanguard officials could not afford to take a chance. The Vanguard rocket is so tall and slender that winds over 15 miles an hour are a menace to it. A "hold" was ordered and there was a long wait.

Finally a weather balloon was sent aloft. It refuted the wind forecast. Almost immediately the countdown resumed.

O'Neill Says Ike's
New Road Plan To Shave Idle List

COLUMBUS (AP) — Gov. C. William O'Neill said today prompt action on President Eisenhower's highway proposal would help relieve unemployment in Ohio.

The governor, recuperating in Florida from a heart attack, commented on the President's proposal for Congress to allocate more than $2 billion in federal funds to states for highway building.

Hal W. Conefry, O'Neill's press secretary, relayed the governor's remarks to newsmen following a telephone conversation. He said: "Ohio is prepared to put additional extensive highway projects under construction if the federal government allocates additional money. If such additional allocation is to help in the present employment situation, however, it must be made without delay."

TWIN RIVERS, LAST STOP — A Chicago & Northwestern freight train — apparently unmanned — moved out of the Calumet switching yards at Manitowish, Wis., passed through the city and then plunged into Twin rivers, seven miles north of Manitowish. The train's crew told police they had left the engine idling while they were having breakfast in the roundhouse.

40 Witnesses
Due in Probe

Kohler Labor Dispute
Still Being Debated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate rackets probes called 40 witnesses today to tell about an economic boycott pushed by the United Auto Workers as part of their strike against the Kohler Co.

First they planned further questioning of Emil Mazey, UAW secretary-treasurer.

The UAW called the strike against the Wisconsin bathroom fixtures company in April 1954. The plant was closed for a time, but later was reopened with non-strikers and new employees.

So far the hearings have centered around acts of violence and vandalism in the strike. Each side has blamed the other.

During the weekend Walter Reuther, UAW president, released a letter to Sen. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) urging "sanity" in the investigation of the strike so that the hearings do not "continue to deteriorate into a political brawl and name-calling contest."

A CONTINUATION of this emotionally explosive atmosphere in these hearings can only create further bitterness between the Kohler Co. and its striking employees, and make a sane, sensible and just settlement of this dispute more difficult," Reuther wrote.

No comment was available immediately from Goldwater. He and Reuther, long-time foes, have hurled charges of "liar" and "coward" at each other.

In his letter to the senator, Reuther said the UAW "made every possible effort to minimize violence" in the Kohler strike. But he conceded that some members violated that policy in the heat of emotion and under what he called the company's provocation.

Artist Dying;
Tribal Curse
Given Blame

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Australia's famous aboriginal artist, Albert Namatjira, today was reported slowly dying from a tribal curse.

The Sydney Daily Mirror said that many people in Alice Springs, where the artist is hospitalized, believe that Arunta tribesmen "pointed the bone" at him — an ancient aboriginal method of doing away with offenders.

The bone is pointed in a special ceremony and the victim traditionally weakens and dies.

The Mirror said that Namatjira, once a husky, strapping man, has wasted away and seldom speaks now. It said it is believed the bone was pointed at the artist because he obtained full citizenship rights last year. The tribe of aborigines opposes defection to the white "invaders."

Namatjira was admitted to the Alice Springs Hospital about eight months ago after he had burned his left hand in his camp fire while sleeping. The hand became infected and doctors amputated the index finger. He was discharged at the end of the year but later came back. A hospital spokesman said doctors can find no medical explanation for his present condition.

Sturm & Dillard To Receive
$155,767 in Road Damages

The case of the appropriation by the State of Ohio of an easement and land for highway purposes over the property of the Sturm & Dillard Co. has been settled out of court for $155,767.

The state originally filed a deposit for this easement and land of $60,000.

A total of $5,557 was paid for the actual land used by the highway and the 200 foot easement on either side of the roadbed. An extra large easement was needed since sand and gravel which underlies the area is more likely to cave in than average ground. Actual ground taken was 13.72 acres, half of which was used for the roadbed.

For structures the state paid $2,425.

Buildings included a corn shed, tool shed and a septic tank. The major part of the settlement was for damages incurred, amounting to $147,785. The extensive damages included loss of a dredge operation which brought sand into the plant. Now a dragline (dry digging) system must be used requiring trucks and more men.

Auto Crashes
Injure Three

Three persons were injured, none seriously, in two auto crashes in the Ashville area Saturday evening.

The first accident came at 5:45 p. m. involving cars operated by John M. Groce, 81, and Agnes Williams, 63, both of Ashville. Groce suffered a lacerated left hand and Mrs. Williams a severely possible back injuries.

Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff said the Groce auto apparently pulled away from a curb and crashed into the side of the Williams car. Both vehicles were slightly damaged the deputy said.

The other accident was at 6:10 p. m. on Route 316 and Cromley Road, Virginia Irwin, 27, Ashville, suffered a lacerated left arm and possible chest injuries when her car went out of control and smashed into a utility pole.

MRS. IRWIN told Deputy Radcliff that she was rounding a curve on Cromley Road when her car brakes suddenly failed. She said the car veered off the highway.

Deputy Radcliff said the front end of the car was heavily damaged.

A SAND WASHER must now be purchased for approximately $50,000 due to loss of the dredge system. There has been a loss of 20 to 25 feet of sand since the dragline system can only go 45 to 50 feet deep while the dredge operation could go down 70 feet.

A cutoff of railroad facilities has been incurred preventing Sturm and Dillard from switching onto the N&W and Pennsylvania Railroads. The C&O Railroad is the only railroad left open. This meant a loss of the sale of a million and a half yards of dirt to users in West Virginia.

The N&W Railroad is the only direct shipper into West Virginia and with the loss of this connection, Sturm and Dillard now cannot compete with other sand and gravel companies due to the transportation rate increase.

According to company officials the cost per ton of sand has increased nine cents since the highway construction. The dredge will have to be junked at an estimated loss of $160,000.

It was reported by a responsible official that Sturm and Dillard offered the state highway department $50,000 toward construction of a road to move the highway nearer the N&W Railroad so as not to interfere with the company's operation.

PORTLAND, England (AP) — The American nuclear-powered submarine Skate ended a five-day stay at this British naval base today and sailed for France.

Koreas Agree To Return
Downed American Jet Pilot

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — North Korea today agreed to return a U.S. Air Force pilot shot down over the demilitarized zone last Thursday by Communist gunfire.

No date for the release was given. The Communist announcement came at a meeting of the Military Armistice Commission at which the U.N. Command warned it would shoot down any Red planes crossing the truce line.

Capt. Leon Pfeiffer of Kenosha, Wis., who parachuted from the stricken Sabre Jet into Communist territory, was being given "humanitarian treatment," the Communist delegates said.

Communist representatives said Pfeiffer was in good health indicating that he was not wounded.

The U.N. delegate, Gen. Olaf Kyster, admitted that Pfeiffer's and other American planes had violated the demilitarized zone but told the Reds it was because of

"mistakes and carelessness on the part of the pilots."

KYSTER protested the shooting was an "unnecessary armed attack" and warned that Communist aircraft violating U.N. territory also would be fired upon "if these violations are not due to navigational error."

Kyster emphasized at a press conference later that this was not a new policy.

The North Korean delegate charged U.N. forces had violated the demilitarized zone 588 times since the 1953 armistice to spy on Communist territory.

The Korean Maj. Gen. Kang Sang Ho, charged that the latest U.N. violations were "along with a series of provocative acts by your side...in converting South Korea into a United States atomic war base."

The Communist delegates said Pfeiffer's Sabre Jet was shot down because the pilot disregarded Communist warning fire by continuing to "perpetrate hostile acts at low altitude."

Senate's Dem
Chief Tells of Speedup Need

66 Senators Backing
Resolution Calling
For Federal Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.) testified today for an accelerated federal public works program and declared, "what we want is action, not credit, not an issue. We want to get rid of the issue by putting people on jobs."

The Senate Democratic leader was the first witness at a Public Works Committee hearing on a resolution he and 65 other senators are sponsoring to put the Senate on record as favoring a speedup of civil public works projects.

The Texas said the resolution covered $4 billion already appropriated for such projects as dams, river and harbor improvements and public buildings.

Johnson noted that President Eisenhower on Saturday "announced some steps to pump new vigor into the economy."

"I believe most of us would endorse those steps insofar as they have been explained up to this point," he said.

"IN RETURN, I believe we should let him know that we endorse the fullest practicable use of his resources to battle unemployment."

Johnson and the other senators have introduced a second resolution to be considered by the Armed Services Committee. It covers $3 billion already voted for military construction projects.

The Democratic leader told the Public Works Committee "the question before us involves a high degree of urgency."

"There are men and women out of work—at least five million of them. Their sources of income are vanishing rapidly," he said.

Johnson said he did not contend that the two resolutions introduced in the Senate last Thursday would be the complete answer to the economic slump.

"This is a first step," he said, "other proposals are to follow."

While Democrats and some Republicans clamored for more, President Eisenhower ordered a speedup of government construction projects for which money is available, and announced immediately.

Henry Reid Jr.
Here; Talks
With Attorney

Henry L. Reid Jr., Atlanta, Ga., former Pickaway County fair manager, was consulting with an attorney here today in attempts to clear his name of charges that $3,314 of fair board funds were unaccounted for during his stint as fair manager.

Reid was fair manager from January 1952 to February 1957. He resigned last year and moved to Atlanta.

The state auditor's office, on February 27, announced that findings for recovery of $3,314.19 had been made against Reid as the result of an audit of fair board books. The audit covered the period from May 31, 1956 through Dec. 17, 1957.

Reid was owner of the local Coca Cola plant, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce and was 1955 winner of the "Man-of-the-Year" award.

Roger Wayne Carter, 18, Chicago, charged with slaying a bar worker, and Edward L. Kille, 27, held on a federal car theft charge, were collared in the jail-court-house within an hour.

How Do You Know if He Is Right One?

CHICAGO (AP)—How will you know when you meet the right one?

That's one of the questions that figures in discussions of love, dating and marriage that drew hundreds of teen-agers to 14 Roman Catholic churches in the Chicago area Sunday night.

The Rev. Walter Imborski, assistant director of the organization, said you will know that you have met the right one, boys and girls, if you can say "yes" to all of the following queries (Note: Father Imborski says the answers should come from the heart, not the head):

"1. Can I find happiness making the other person happy?"

"2. Will he (or she) see my faults and still love me?"

"3. Can I reveal my fears, ambitions and dreams and still be desired?"

"4. Can I see myself washing 50,000 dishes for him, or carrying out the garbage for her 365 days a year for 50 years?"

"5. Will I love her when she's 30 pounds heavier, or love him when he's bald?"

"6. Am I a better person since we met—more thoughtful and less selfish?"

"7. Am I proud of the partner I have chosen? Do I enjoy introducing her (or him) to my friends?"

ate release of $200 million to help make more private loans available for home construction.

EISENHOWER also proposed that the federal government, for the first time, provide funds to extend the period of jobless benefits to unemployed workers. Many of these already have exhausted their rights under payment schedules fixed by the various states.

Eisenhower also asked Congress to raise the ceiling on highway spending for the next three years, and said he will ask an additional $186 million for water resources projects within a few days.

With Senate Democrats already pushing a broader antirecession program, the weekend brought these other developments:

1. Thirteen of the 16 Democratic members of the House Banking Committee, led by Rep. Rains (D-Ala.), proposed a $2½ billion government loan program to permit construction of sewage and water facilities, libraries, transportation, public buildings and other works projects in labor surplus areas.

2. Eight Republican senators suggested heavier spending than Eisenhower proposed and called among other things for federal aid to school construction.

3. Some House members professed to see the need for a second increase this year in the national debt limit (boosted only last month to $280 billion) if had news continues on the economic front and makes heavy federal spending necessary.

4. SEN. DOUGLAS (D-Ill.) and Rep. Simpson (R-Pa.) repeated their demands for income and other tax cuts to make more spending money available.

5. Chairman Blatnik (D-Minn.) of the House Public Works Committee said he will introduce legislation to push public works projects for which money is available. It was in this field that Eisenhower directed a speedup of projects where that can be done.

Johnson said he has been informed that the unexpended balances of money Congress has provided for military and civilian construction stood at $7.1 billion on Jan. 1, the last date for which figures are available.

Dulles Doubts U.S. To Beat Russians In Race to Moon

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles doubts America will beat Russia to the moon because of the Soviets' head start in outer space exploration.

He told a recent session of the House Foreign Affairs Committee that the country that reaches the moon first will most certainly score a propaganda victory.

He told the committee in a Feb. 6 appearance that the United States is closing the scientific gap on the Soviets but perhaps not fast enough to win the race to the moon. The committee made Dulles' views public Sunday.

Metcalf refused to tell the subcommittee the names of persons who attended a meeting of Marxist adherents, declaring they no longer were connected with Communist activities.

TUNIS (AP)—President Habib Bourguiba is reported to have agreed to the first step of a compromise plan that would allow French forces to remain in control of the big naval base at Bizerte.

The Tunisian President demanded that all French forces get out of his country after the French bombing of Sakiet Sidi Youssef last month.

But under the plan reportedly worked out by U.S. conciliator Robert Murphy, the French would pull their forces back to Bizerte and leave neutrals guarding French airports to insure that they would not be used by Algerian rebels.

Newcastle -Under-Lyme, England (AP)—Men of the royal artillery unit here have been ordered to quit whistling at girl soldiers.

Capt. Joyce Roberts the trim, 35-year-old commander of the WRACs, said she had filed a complaint because "the whistling upset the girls and I had to do something about it."

Commented Pvt. Edna Russell, 18: "I like the whistles. They make a woman feel womanly."

Pendleton said that expanded and improved service to the public is a vital factor in the outcome of Ohio Bell's rate increase application before the Ohio Public Utilities Commission.

Ohio's First Lady Vacations, But Does Own Cooking Too

By REED SMITH
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's first lady is back in the kitchen. She is doing the cooking for Gov. C. William O'Neill and their two children, Dubby, 11, and Peggy, 8, during their vacation in Miami Beach, Fla.

The governor reported the change of pace in his household during a routine telephone talk with statehouse aides in Columbus.

"One of the first things Betty did on the way from the airport to our apartment was buy a supply of groceries," he said. The governor added ruefully that he had hoped to cut down his weight.

Mrs. O'Neill, who did her own cooking before her husband became governor, has a cook and other servants at the executive mansion in suburban Bexley. They are trustees from Ohio Penitentiary, some of them serving life for murder.

The O'Neills have a beachside apartment for their two-week stay in Florida while the governor is recovering from a heart attack suffered Jan. 22. Physicians, who predicted his complete recovery, said he needed, outdoor exercise after returning to his office and the campaign for renomination in the Republican primary election May 6.

Besides bathing and sight seeing, the governor and his son plan deep sea fishing expeditions and will watch action of major league baseball teams training in the area. O'Neill and his family are spectator sports fans.

Mechanization of state departments for economy and efficiency pose some unexpected problems for the O'Neill administration.

An example is the stores division of the state Liquor Department that does an annual business of more than 225 million dollars. Preliminary figures show that use of IBM machines to tabulate sales in the state's 226 retail liquor stores is skyrocketing postage. Officials said first estimates indicated the postage increase might hit $80,000 a year if daily reports, made by each store under the old system, were continued. A boost in postal rates contemplated by Congress, would advance the cost accordingly.

Even before the transition in all five liquor districts could be made, officials shifted reports to a weekly basis in an effort to curb costs. The result has yet to be evaluated.

Formerly store managers listed the number of bottles of each brand sold on large sheets and mailed them to Columbus for tabulating. The shift to IBM tabulating machines required a separate card for each of some 550 brands in the state liquor monopoly. Stores mail them in batches.

Not all stores stock all brands but separate cards are required for reports on the sale of pints and fifths of each brand, officials explained. Weekly sales totals are entered by each store on separate cards for each brand for the mechanical tabulations in state headquarters.

Officials estimated that approximately $25,000 cards will be fed into the machines weekly in Columbus when installation of the new system, begun last November, is completed soon. They hope that eventual savings in manpower to process the reports will more than offset postage and other cost increases.

During the transition period, officials said the cost of extra help and overtime payments have fattened department payrolls.

The increases, they conceded, are embarrassing during a time when the state administration is waging a belt-tightening drive to cut costs and eliminate waste in state operations.

Make Easter Day a Time For New Family Tradition

By DOROTHY WHIPPLE, M.D.
NEW YORK (AP) — Family traditions are nice things — something your family does that the rest of the world doesn't do. Children who grow up with this good feeling of family solidarity often carry this tradition over into their own families when they grow up.

In our family for years and years we have had an Easter morning breakfast picnic. Some families go to a sunrise church service on Easter morning, this is nice too. Ours was never quite as early as sunrise.

There has always been a lot of ritual about the Easter breakfast, ritual that the children all looked forward to.

The place for the picnic has varied a good deal through the years. Sometimes a nearby picnic grove where there were swings and slides and a big stone fireplace; sometimes we went to a little stream we know, and occasionally we had our picnic in our own backyard.

The most important part of the picnic is the Easter egg hunt. The rule has always been that the children go off and play as soon as we arrive at the picnic site while Mom and Dad hide the jelly bean eggs, usually in at least three sizes. Little ones count one, middle-sized ones two and the big ones, five. Once the eggs are hidden, the children can come back and help make the fire and prepare breakfast.

The menu is always the same:

fruit juice, bacon and eggs, hot cocoa and toasted muffins. The eggs are carried uncooked, but they must all be colored in traditional Easter colors. Its a lot harder to dye raw eggs than hard cooked ones—but it can be done. Each child picks his color, breaks his own eggs into the pan at the right moment. Then we all sit down to a good hearty breakfast.

Once the food is stowed away the hunt for the eggs begins. A paper bag is supplied each child and there is much squealing as the candy eggs are discovered.

Seldom have there been just our own children on this expedition. Each of ours may invite any of his special friends he wants to and usually we ask the parents to come along too. So there is usually quite a crowd. The adults sit around sipping coffee while the youngsters do the hunting. Since there is apt to be quite an age range we give the little ones a handicap so that they have a relatively even chance with the big ones of winning the coveted first prize for the most eggs found.

Once the egg hunt is over and the winner duly rewarded we all traipse home in time to have baths and get dressed up for the Easter morning service.

Our children have always enjoyed this expedition not only because it has always been fun in itself but because its ours. They have enjoyed introducing their friends to the family tradition. There have been some children who have been with us from kindergarten to high school.

2 Boys Blamed For Dayton School Fire

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Police and fire inspectors are searching for two boys believed to have started fires which destroyed a school for retarded and wayward youth here early Sunday.

Policemen saw the boys running from McKinley Occupational School but were unable to catch them. When the officers returned to the 60-year-old, three - floor brick building they found five separate fires going.

Fire Chief Forrest Lucas, who set the cause as arson, said firemen found at least 50 kerosene-soaked rags at the scene. He said the youths also used books and papers in the building to get the fires started.

Police said the vandals had written obscene remarks on black boards in the building which housed 13 classrooms and workshops. They said a comparison of that handwriting and that of the 180 pupils in the school will be made in an attempt to identify the arsonists.

Lucas estimated damage to the school at $100,000. But Dayton Superintendent of Schools Robert B. French said it would take $350,000 to rebuild the building and another $50,000 to replace the equipment.

He said, following an emergency school board meeting Sunday, that pupil will be given the week off. French said the board will meet later this week to discuss other facilities.

Four firemen were injured slightly in the two-hour battle to get the blaze under control. None was hospitalized.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government foreign trade reports show that 727,853 head of cattle, mostly beef, were brought into the United States last year.

This was the highest number since 1950 when the imports totaled 460,969 head.

Last year's imports came almost wholly from Canada and Mexico, drawn by favorable prices in this country.

Coal Pipeline Said Ready For Operation

CLEVELAND (AP)—Within three months a pipeline carrying a dirty mixture of powered coal and water from the eastern Ohio coal fields to the Cleveland area is expected to be in commercial operation.

That word came today from the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co., which has had the coal pipeline in partial operation since last April.

Early efforts to test the line last year ran into difficulties. James Hyslop, president of Pitt Consol's Hanna Coal Co. division, said the problems did not involve the 108-mile pipeline itself or the high-pressure pumping equipment. "Our problems," he said, "have centered mainly around preparation of the slurry (coal - water mixture), with some difficulty in the drying operation."

Once in commercial operation, the pipeline is expected to deliver annually 1,200,000 tons of coal from Cadiz to the Eastlake power station of the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co.

Hyslop said the line has operated for continuous runs as long as three weeks, with maintenance shutdowns of from two to 48 hours. It is the first such pipeline ever put into operation.

Public Pressure Still Needed

Public opinion in this country is mercurial—it rarely concentrates on more than one major problem at a time. Only a short time ago missiles and satellites and America's deficiencies in these fields were all but the sole subject of debate in Congress and in public and private forums, large and small.

American anxiety over missiles and the penetration of outer space has had a normal tendency to simmer down since the launching of the Army's Explorer satellite and since the firing of ballistic missiles has become all but a weekly routine.

But if the problem is somewhat out of mind, it will not go away. The United States is still in a life or death race with the Soviet Union and it would be calamitous to relax into complacency so soon simply because of preoccupation with other problems.

Appointment of a scientific advisor to the President, the appropriation of more billions for defense, and the naming of a committee to study reorganization of the Pentagon have not automatically solved the Nation's problems. They are merely the first steps in a mustering of strength which must be pursued with unremitting vigor over a period of years.

There is no adequate substitute for the pressure of an aroused and alarmed public opinion to maintain the sense of urgency required to get hard decisions made with the necessary speed.

Reaching Age 47 -- a Victory

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Recently I received a mysterious anonymous card in the mail. "Every year you're getting closer" and when I opened the card it said inside: "To being a dirty old man."

Well, I had to chuckle. After all, a fellow can't very well break down and cry just because it's his 47th birthday.

And to tell the truth I didn't feel much like crying, anyway. A fellow's 40th birthday may be a heart-buster to him but if he has any sense at all, every one after that he hails as a major triumph, a personal victory in the long struggle of man versus microbe.

When you get right down to it, any amateur at living can survive to 40 or even 45. If you can go on after that, it's no longer a matter of mere luck. You're a real pro — you've learned the trick of how to keep breathing.

If life is like climbing a mountain, at 47 you get an unexpected reward. You break through the storm clouds of early middle age, and find yourself on the edge of a sunny upper plateau. You have become a bit like a tree, which each year has a ring of growth, an interior calendar of its own. With every passing season the old scars inside you lose their power to hurt. You become even proud of some of the scars, and glad they no longer show.

At 47 the big important things loom smaller and the smaller things get more important. You don't expect to solve a major problem every morning. A pleasant meal, an unexpected visit from an old friend, a $5 tax refund from the government — these are enough to make a day memorable.

The devil calls you less and you wonder about God more. You'd rather dream about your youth than how to make a million dollars. And at 47 your marriage reaps an unexpected boon. Your wife treats you with a new respect, brings you your slippers when you come home, gets out of your easy chair herself and lets you sit in it.

She is terribly, terribly grateful to you merely because, at 47, you haven't died and left her a widow.

Dip in Pockets for Youngsters

By George Sokolsky

I attended a luncheon to influence newspapermen to favor PAL, the New York City police-sponsored organization, which through some 40 centers interests boys and girls in the idea that gangs could be teams and there is just as much fun. I did not think that the idea was adequately presented. It was played down, perhaps because public officials fear stating a case with adequate and truthful drama lest they be accused of giving their city a bad name.

This is bunk because when children play at murder, the situation is real bad. Also for some reason, all that those who run PAL can raise is about $750,000 a year which is chicken feed for the job that needs to be done. New York, where some women buy dresses at $2,000 a piece, can afford $5,000,000 a year for this kind of work.

After all, cops cannot go out raising subscriptions because that soon degenerates into graft and blackmail. For this an effective citizens' committee is needed with enough gumption to ask for the right amount of money to do something about youngsters who are unwanted because of their race and color and linguistic distinctions and who know that they are unwanted.

New York gangs have always been organized by the newest element in the population. The notorious Five Points gang of Horatio Alger's time or the Hell's Kitchen gang half a century ago was composed principally of the Irish. The Gas House and the Car Barn gangs were Irish, the latter with some Germans.

There are no Irish or German gangs in New York today, just as the Jewish and Italian gangs are disappearing. These immigrant populations have been to a lesser or greater degree assimilated and integrated, to use fancy terms for a normal process of older generations dying off and the newer generations seeking to be like everybody else.

The newer population of our big cities, particularly in New York, is Negro and Puerto Rican. The latter have a particularly difficult time because Puerto Ricans do not regard themselves as Negro and reject the secondary status which is the lot of the American Negro in northern big cities. The Puerto Ricans resent the racial discrimination and the fact that they are unwanted except on Election Day when the politicians need their votes.

Because politicians are anxious to avoid offending voters, they do not face this gang problem honestly. They avoid saying that gangs are generally made up of persons of the same racial, religious, or neighborhood affiliations. The present gangs in New York are principally Negro and Puerto Rican, with a few whites intermingled by geographic accident.

The essential difference between present gangs and those of the Prohibition Era or half a century ago or a century ago is that the age of the gangsters continues to be younger. J. Edgar Hoover has, for many years, been calling attention to the fact that the criminals of the United States are constantly growing younger. These boys and girls do not get a chance to be decent. When a boy of 11 commits murder, it is a pitiful spectacle.

It is probably correct that there is not a single teen-age gang that could not be diverted into a team or a group of teams. These boys want to be active. They want to make their mark. They want to be admired by girls. They want to be heroes.

As all of my childhood was spent under conditions identical with those which nowadays shock the country, I can have some understanding of the problems that face a growing child who has nowhere to go and nothing to do. The child does not know that the real cause that has befallen him is that his parents have chosen to live in the big city where human beings are crowded into tenements like cockroaches.

What does a child do in the city? In my day, it was still possible to play on the streets but now the streets are full of automobiles. Where does a child go for companionship? It depends upon luck. Where there is a social settlement or a PAL club, the child could be fortunate. Otherwise, the gang offers interest and excitement.

So what we need is loads of money for such organizations as PAL, millions of dollars to assimilate these kids into American life.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — It looks like an egg-throwing contest — with old eggs. Both sides are splattered in the high-level American-Soviet discussions on how to hold a summit meeting.

Premier Bulganin has written President Eisenhower four letters since December. Eisenhower has replied with three. Both agree peace is wonderful. Each uses a lot of paper blaming the other side for the mess of the world's in. Others heaved eggs of their own from the sidelines: Secretary of State Dulles, Communist party boss Khrushchev, the State Department, the Soviet Foreign Office.

So, while both sides talk of the summit, both are using the exchanges for propaganda. This may be the diplomats' idea of how to arrange a meeting. To a layman it may seem the best way to have none at all.

Bulganin, sandwiching in topics he'd like a summit meeting to discuss, has: charged the United States with war preparations; taken a crack at Dulles by brushing off the idea that foreign ministers should meet to arrange a summit conference; accused people in this country of calling for a preventive war; blamed this government for not squelching them.

That's just a brief down version of all he said. He got under Eisenhower's skin. The President, knowing the whole world was reading his correspondence with Bulganin, went to great lengths to defend this country and blast the Soviet Union.

He blamed the "cold war" on communism; accused the Soviets of running out on promises to help unify Germany and let the satellites hold free elections; condemned the Soviet Union for undermining nations with its 82 vetoes in the United Nations.

He needed Bulganin for being too wordy in his letters; blamed the Soviet Union for the arms race and wanting to overthrow other governments; and he told Bulganin one of his letters was just a mild rebuff of a "bitter speech" by Khrushchev before a bunch of farmers in Minsk last Jan. 22.

While Bulganin was writing about peace and togetherness, Khrushchev at Minsk belittled this country's efforts to launch a satellite, ridiculed Eisenhower and Dulles, and blistered the "Western imperialists" who wanted to preserve a war atmosphere in order to make money.

In short order, the State Department issued a statement tearing into Khrushchev for spreading a "distorted view of United States policies and motivations."

Meanwhile, the Soviet Foreign Office in a note to this country — called by diplomats an aide memoire — suggested that maybe, after all, the foreign ministers could meet to arrange a summit conference.

But, upon analysis, all the Soviets were suggesting was that the foreign ministers act like a bunch of booking agents without authority to make preparations for a summit meeting that might accomplish something.

That was what the State Department fired back in an aide memoire of its own. What it meant in nondiplomatic language was: Whom are you kidding? What it actually said: Do you want a worthwhile summit meeting or a "spectacle"?

And Dulles at his news conference last week called the Soviet note a "fraud, or a hoax." This is in addition to some extra egg-throwing on the side. For instance, the Soviet radio blamed the United States for the French bombing of a Tunisian town. The State Department jumped on this as "outrageous." It seems safe to say after all this that American-Soviet relations are no better and a summit meeting no nearer.

Life Span Gets Longer

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Here's a tip for young bridegrooms: better start looking for that present you're going to give your wife on your golden wedding anniversary.

You know how long it takes to buy a gift like that, and statistics say both of you probably will be around to enjoy your 50th anniversary together.

In fact, the likelihood that a typical young couple getting married now will celebrate their golden anniversary is more than twice what it was half a century ago.

For a 21-year-old man who marries a girl four years younger, the chances are 419 to 1,000—better than two out of five—that both will survive through the next 50 years.

Back in 1900, the chances were only 192 in 1,000. The older the couple at marriage, the less chance both have of celebrating their 50th anniversary. But the odds still are much better all down the line than they used to be.

For the groom of 25 with a bride of 21, the chances of reaching the golden anniversary together are 296 per 1,000, compared with 123 at the turn of the century.

If the bride and groom are both

17 when they marry, the chances are one in two that both will see that half-century wedding celebration. When both are 25 at marriage, the odds drop to one in four. At the age of 31, they drop to about one in 10.

Of course, the outlook for celebrating the silver anniversary is even better, according to statistics cited by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in a recent bulletin.

The chances are now nine in ten for grooms up to the age of 23, who take a bride four years younger, and also for grooms up to 21 who wed girls of the same age or as much as two years older.

Even for men who marry as late as 35, the chances of celebrating a 25th anniversary are better than seven in ten.

The typical American bride and groom of today are almost certain to survive to their 10th anniversary. The chances are about 98 in every 100 for men and women who marry in their early twenties, and better than 90 in every 100 for those who wait until their late thirties.

Medical advances, you see, have made it possible for most of you young couples to spend many,

FBI Chief Stresses Need For Guard Against Commies

NEW YORK (AP) — FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover appeals to Americans today to keep their guard against a conspiratorial communist movement which "has been and is engaged in an all-out war against American freedom."

Despite convulsions, flippings, defections and setbacks, the communist party's hard core in the United States still is a vast reservoir of spy material posing a "tremendous and present danger" to American security, the director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation warns in a new book, "Masters of Deceit," published today. (Henry Holt & Co.)

When the party was founded in 1919 by a rag-tag group of grotesque revolutionaries on the Bolshevik model, it planted an infection which, though limited to a relative few, could spread dangerously, Hoover says.

"Something utterly new has taken root in America during the past generation, a communist mentality representing a systematic, purposive and conscious attempt to destroy Western civilization and roll history back to the age of barbaric cruelty and despotism, all in the name of progress," the FBI director writes. "Evil is depicted as good, terror as justice, hate as love, obedience to a foreign master as patriotism."

The attempt to create a "Communist Man" will fail, Hoover says, "but we cannot afford the luxury of waiting for it to run its course," because its weapons become more formidable as guards are lowered.

Moscow normally tries to separate the party from spy activities, Hoover says, but the party's thousands of members still play an important role in Soviet espionage.

"The party is doing much to prepare the way for Soviet espionage and, when the need arises, es, will unhesitatingly supply vital assistance," Hoover says.

The FBI director's book, subtitled "The Story of Communism in America and How to Fight It," is a painstaking survey of communism in America and its political savagery. The book could serve as a guide to communist activities in any free country.

"Communism in brief, has bitterly indicted communism," Hoover says. "Communist practice has indicted communist theory; communist actions have indicted the perverted use of such lofty words as 'peace,' 'justice' and 'liberty.'"

Hoover sketches communist tactics, legal and illegal; its attempts at infiltration of labor groups and mass organizations, its use of fronts and a communist infighting which "is vicious and utterly devoid of moral principles." He tells Americans how to spot such activities and how to counter them.

But Hoover warns that while citizens can help the FBI in its unending battle against the communists, there must be no "hysteria, witch-hunts and vigilantes," which he says will do more harm than good. He warns also that the fight must be waged with regard for "the historic liberties of this great nation."

Hoover's book is a valuable contribution to the study of communism in action, a primer which explains communist mumbo-jumbo and tears away the movement's mask of mystery.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—It looks like an egg-throwing contest—with old eggs. Both sides are splattered in the high-level American-Soviet discussions on how to hold a summit meeting.

Premier Bulganin has written President Eisenhower four letters since December. Eisenhower has replied with three. Both agree peace is wonderful. Each uses a lot of paper blaming the other side for the mess of the world's in.

Others heaved eggs of their own from the sidelines: Secretary of State Dulles, Communist party boss Khrushchev, the State Department, the Soviet Foreign Office.

So, while both sides talk of the summit, both are using the exchanges for propaganda. This may be the diplomats' idea of how to arrange a meeting. To a layman it may seem the best way to have none at all.

Bulganin, sandwiching in topics he'd like a summit meeting to discuss, has: charged the United States with war preparations; taken a crack at Dulles by brushing off the idea that foreign ministers should meet to arrange a summit conference; accused people in this country of calling for a preventive war; blamed this government for not squelching them.

That's just a briefed down version of all he said. He got under Eisenhower's skin. The President, knowing the whole world was reading his correspondence with Bulganin, went to great lengths to defend this country and blast the Soviet Union.

He blamed the "cold war" on communism; accused the Soviets of running out on promises to help unify Germany and let the satellites hold free elections; condemned the Soviet Union for undermining nations with its 82 vetoes in the United Nations.

He needed Bulganin for being too wordy in his letters; blamed the Soviet Union for the arms race and wanting to overthrow other governments; and he told Bulganin one of his letters was just a mild rebash of a "bitter speech" by Khrushchev before a bunch of farmers in Minsk last Jan. 22.

While Bulganin was writing about peace and togetherness, Khrushchev at Minsk belittled this country's efforts to launch a satellite, ridiculed Eisenhower and Dulles, and blistered the "Western imperialists" who wanted to preserve a war atmosphere in order to make money.

In short order, the State Department issued a statement tearing into Khrushchev for spreading a "distorted view of United States policies and motivations."

Meanwhile, the Soviet Foreign Office in a note to this country—called by diplomats an aide memoire—suggested that maybe, after all, the foreign ministers could meet to arrange a summit conference.

But, upon analysis, all the Soviets were suggesting was that the foreign ministers act like a bunch of booking agents without authority to make preparations for a summit meeting that might accomplish something.

That was what the State Department fired back in an aide memoire of its own. What it meant in nondiplomatic language was: Whom are you kidding? What it actually said: Do you want a worthwhile summit meeting or a "spectacle"?

And Dulles at his news conference last week called the Soviet note a "fraud, or a hoax." This is in addition to some extra egg-throwing on the side.

For instance, the Soviet radio blamed the United States for the French bombing of a Tunisian town. The State Department jumped on this as "outrageous."

It seems safe to say after all this that American-Soviet relations are no better and a summit meeting no nearer.

Despite Slump, Food Industry Expects Boom

New Sales Record Labeled Entirely Possible This Year

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—You have to eat. You like to eat well. That is why, recession or no, leaders in the food industry say today they expect to set new sales records this year and to beat or equal past profit levels.

Some companies look for as much as a 25 per cent gain in sales volume. The industry as a whole talks of a four billion dollar food sales increase over last year's 75 billion.

Confidence is reflected by food processors and grocery chains who say they are going ahead with expansion plans and emphasizing research.

Other companies whose products are used by or sold in grocery stores—paper, wine, cleansers,—also look for increases.

"Sales thus far this year have been encouraging," says Hanford Main, president of Sunshine Biscuits, Long Island City, N.Y. He says industry sales should rise to 79 billion dollars.

Some setbacks are noted by Robert A. Magowan, president of Safeway Stores, Oakland, Cal. He cites reduced sales volumes in cities hit by output cutbacks in metals and lumber, but adds:

"Nothing that has happened so far has been a deterrent to our expansion program, and we will open a minimum of 150 new stores this year."

Joseph B. Hall, president of Kroger Co., Cincinnati, says his chain will go ahead with new distributing centers, bakeries and stores as planned. The chain's sales are running 12 per cent ahead of last year.

George H. Coppers, president of National Biscuit of New York, reports the industry is increasing research expenditures and development of new products.

An expanding demand for high quality foods is foreseen by Porter M. Jarvis, president of Swift, Chicago meat packers.

Lytle C. Roll, president of Kellogg Co., Battle Creek, Mich., says Americans will continue to spend a substantial portion of their income for food. His firm plans to build a new plant this year in Memphis.

Sales gains are predicted also by: Daniel F. Gerber, president of Gerber Products, Fremont, Mich.; C. Clyde Loftis, president of Kraft Foods division of National Dairy Products, Chicago; A. E. Staley Jr., president of A. E. Staley Manufacturing Co., Decatur, Ill.

Five Points

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Porter were Sunday evening guests of Mrs. Bertha Porter of Williamsport.

The Five Points Methodist Social Hour Club held their February meeting Friday evening in the church basement with 39 members present.

A covered dish supper preceded the meeting. The president, Mrs. Paul Dawson, presided at the business meeting and heard the various reports.

Mrs. E. L. Sheets read the 90th Psalm as the scripture reading. A "Thank You" note was read from the Rawlins family.

Mr. Elbert Rawlins gave a reading "Presidents of the U.S." Mr. C. D. Hosler read "Abraham Lincoln" and Mrs. Dale Stubbs gave a reading "George Washington." The group then sang "America" and the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hosler, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parks and Mr. and Mrs. Festus Hill.

The March meeting will be held Friday evening March 28th with Rev. and Mrs. John Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moore and Mrs. Helen Phillips as hosts.

Grants by the Rockefeller Foundation will make it possible for Prof. Edward Smith of New York University to engage in research and teach political science at the University of Ankara, Turkey.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: In the early years of the late war, I met a lovely girl just out of high school, while I was stationed at a nearby camp. We dated for several months and were much in love; and still are. But we delayed marriage, due to Beth's being an orphan and living with an older sister who objected to Beth's marrying a soldier about to go overseas.

Suddenly, orders for overseas duty came without warning, and without time for us to marry—after Beth surmised that she was pregnant. Her first letter overseas confirmed the surmise; and at once I wrote my parents that Beth and I had married secretly on the eve of my sailing, and that she was expecting a baby.

Immediately my parents took Beth into their home with great warmth; and after the baby was born, they remained there until my return. Since then we've had more children and have gone on with our lives like any legally married couple—simply because we haven't known how to go about regularizing the situation.

We are accepted by the community as a married couple; and our illegal status is a cause of great concern to both of us. Our eldest child, a son with an IQ of 180, is a boy of great promise in many respects. Undoubtedly he will make quite a career for himself, and this prospect adds to our concern.

Will his future possibly bring to sight the fact that his parents aren't legally married? If so, will this mar his life? Also there is the question of Beth's being able to collect social security in the event of my death—which with which to rear the children.

DEAR E.B.: In all probability your partnership with Beth has had legal status, in terms of being a common law marriage, from the time you wrote to your parents that she was your wife, and that she was expecting your child.

In that instance, you presented her to society as your spouse; and yourself as her husband and protector—and this is the essence of common law marriage.

However, it remains to be determined whether the laws in your jurisdiction do accord full recognition to the wife and children of such an alliance.

Legal affirmation of common law relationships is fairly extensive throughout the country; but doesn't obtain in every community. Also, factors that constitute binding common law marriage may differ from one jurisdiction to another.

So the only way to be sure of your ground is to consult a trustworthy judge or attorney. Or a staff counsellor with a Family Service Agency, or Red Cross Home Service department—who is ethically bound to safeguard the confidential nature of your mission.

Also a priest or clergyman, representing the background religious moorings of your wife or yourself, would be a logical adviser in respect to solving the problem, both legally and sacramentally.

It might be imprudent to pursue such inquiry in your own community. It is probably more discreet to take up your questions with suitable authorities (as cited above) in a big city—either in the nearest big city, or the capital city of your state, as you prefer.

Any good lawyer or social worker, or able clergyman, will know how to get at the facts of your situation, from the legal view. And how to help you take corrective steps, if necessary to safeguard the honor and future security of your household.

Therefore don't worry any more about the initial mistake. Just quietly go to work, at once, to set your house in order, figuratively.

NEW METHODS MAKE IT POSSIBLE...

Low-cost shelter buildings with walls of solid concrete

Reinforced concrete walls are cast on the ground, erected with farm tractor and new tilting frame developed at Texas A. & M.

Farm engineers have borrowed a method from industrial builders . . . streamlined it . . . cut costs to make it practical for simple farm structures. The method is "tilt-up" . . . but builders no longer need heavy-construction lifting rigs to raise the concrete panels.

The tilting frame illustrated was developed by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. Now, a small crew can place 8 x 8 or 10 x 10 concrete panels in a matter of minutes. The only power needed is that of a standard farm tractor.

Long-life concrete is weather-resistant, rodent-proof and noncombustible. Solid concrete walls can take the punishment required in farm structures like loafing and feeding barns and machine sheds. And because they need little or no maintenance during their long life, concrete buildings save you time and money. For details, see your ready-mix dealer, rural builder, or farm structures specialist at your state college. Or fill in the coupon below.

IN HER NINETIES, Grandma Moses keeps young by painting, a hobby, started at age 78, which has brought her fame.

Right State of Mind Helps You Stay Young

Whenever we get into a rut of grumbling, complaining about 'inconsequential things, we remember the very wise words of a wonderful elderly friend.

"Don't," she says—just a bit wistfully—"ever complain about anything as long as you have your youth and health."

Our friend doesn't realize she still has both.

Her health isn't quite as robust as it once was. As for youth, she's close to 70, but no one could be younger in heart.

Her wistfulness is due to the fact that there are a hundred things she wants to do—travel, visit museums, attend concerts, go to lectures—and she's not quite strong enough to manage all in stride. Still, she does far more things than many a woman who's younger—at least in years!

She's warm and charming, has many young friends who find her better company than people their own age. Why? Because she's stimulating company, an interesting conversationalist with a bright, alert mind.

Certainly, she proves that age doesn't mean a thing. If you absorb new ideas, are curious about why and wherefore, you can stay young forever.

Too many girls are old before their time because their minds don't grow. They finish school, and that's the end of learning.

I've heard young women complain that they've nothing to do that life is so dull. It's not dull for those who go in search of new things, who have hobbies and interests to keep them busy.

No dates? Don't sit home and brood. Enroll in night school. Join a club. Study a foreign language. Take up bird-watching or stargazing. Dust those cobwebs out of your mind, keep it young and active and you'll be interested, so will people who meet you, including men!

Annual Spring Dance Held By Elks Lodge Saturday Eve

Lodgemen and their guests, who attended the annual Spring Dance at the Circleville Elks Lodge Saturday night, were in agreement today—Dick Bowers knows a good band when he hears one.

Bowers, exalted ruler of the local lodge, had predicted that the Johnny Wright band, would be "one of the best ever heard in the local lodge."

Guests at the affair gave the Columbus combo a hearty round of applause and Walter Ehmling, chairman of the lodge entertainment committee, said efforts were being made to book the same band for the annual lodge Installation Dance scheduled for Tuesday, April 8.

The installation ceremony, Bowers announced, will be open to both Elks and their guests. He added that a lunch and the dance will follow investiture of the new corps of officers. "There will be no admission charge for this annual affair," Bowers said.

Regional Cage Tests To Be Rare Battles

16 Teams Remain In Both Class A, AA; State Finals Sought

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Several of Ohio's regional high school basketball games this week would be classics if the state championship were at stake.

Probably the finest array of talent in Class AA history is wrapped up in the 16 regionalists—and some snug finishes are in prospect before the victors are decided Saturday night.

The Class AA contingent, survivors of 387 starters, have won 291 games and lost 57. But six of them have combined for 131 conquests and no losses.

In Class A, where the "sweet 16" have won 337 and lost 50, there are three unbeaten quintets.

The unsullied Class AA teams are Cincinnati St. Xavier with 23; defending champion Middletown, Zanesville, Columbus North and Cleveland East Tech with 22, and Toledo Scott with 20.

In Class A the clean quintets are Dixie of Montgomery County and Northwestern of Holmes County with 25, and Bucyrus Holmes-Liberty with 22.

Columbus North and Toledo Scott meet Friday at Marion, slashing the unbeaten group to five in Class AA, but there's a good chance four of the unblemished teams will reach the state tourney.

Middletown and St. Xavier are in the Cincinnati Regional, but can't meet before Saturday, while East Tech is in the Berea play-offs and Zanesville at Kent. Middletown, seeking its 75th straight win, goes against Chillicothe (18-5) Friday, while St. Xavier plays Dayton Fairview (16-7). Fairview finished tied for seventh in the Dayton city league, but topped some fine talent in reaching the regional.

The six unbeaten teams in Class AA, along with once-beaten Elyria, were all in the top 10 of the final Associated Press poll of sports writers. If four of them reach the state tourney it will be the first time the judgment of the voting scribes has been fully vindicated.

Only Dixie of the Class A top 10 is still in the running, the others of the poll's elite being among the 630 teams ousted in the lose-and-out series.

Middletown, winner of seven state titles since 1944, Zanesville's 1926 and 1935 kings, and Columbus East's 1951 winners, are among the Class AA hopefuls, while Columbus (1947) and Arcanum (1955) are back for another try in Class A.

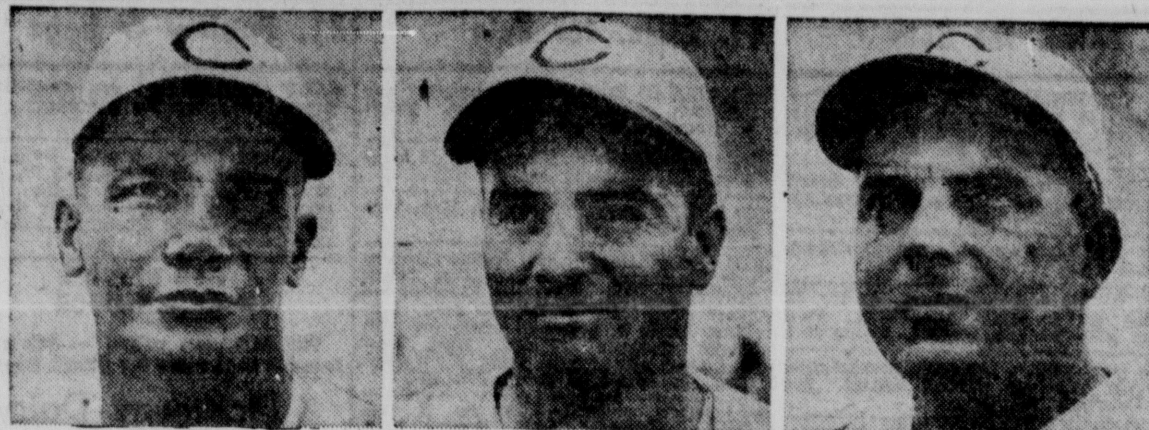

Just half the Class AA field repeated as regional qualifiers from last year, but only Holmes-Liberty (22-0) and Newark St. Francis (18-6) made it in the smaller school division. Back from last season among the big schools are Middletown, Columbus North, Lima, Cleveland Cathedral Latin, Elyria, Cleveland East Tech, Zanesville and Chillicothe. Of that group Cathedral Latin and Middletown made it to the state tourney.

Regional play opens Wednesday in Class AA as Cathedral Latin meets Columbus East at Berea, and Cuyahoga Falls tangles with Wooster and Kent. Thursday games send East Tech against Elyria at Berea, and Zanesville against Akron St. Vincent at Kent in Class AA, and Centralia against Maysville in Class A at Athens. All other semifinals games are Friday. Finals are scheduled in all eight regionals Saturday—with the winners advancing to the state meet here March 21-22.

Following is the complete schedule of pairings for both Class A and Class AA play:

Class AA

Centralia Blasts Piketon, 68-60, for Regional Berth

Unseeded Centralia last Saturday night blasted its way into a regional berth at Athens with a 68-60 win over Piketon to capture the Portsmouth district.

The Bulldogs growled to a 19-13 first quarter lead and were never headed although Piketon narrowed the score to 46-45 at the three quarter mark. Centralia centered its attack around the mammoth frame of Floyd Myers and drove off the big boy for the majority of its points. Piketon felt behind in the first period and fought back the rest

Rookie Rates High In Cleveland Plans

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Rookie second baseman Billy Moran rates so high with General Manager Frank Lane and Manager Bobby Bragan of the Cleveland Indians that he will be in the lineup nearly every day until he proves himself one way or the other.

"I like him," Bragan says. "He's a gutsy ball player and that's the kind I like. He'll do anything to win a ball game for you."

Lane wants Moran to play every day in the hope that it will fire up Bobby Avila, the incumbent at second base.

Moran, who was with San Diego last season, got three of the Indians' four hits in their first exhibition game of the season Saturday and two of their seven hits in Sunday's game.

72 College Cage Outfits Set To Vie for '58 Titles

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Seventy-two college basketball teams swing into action this week in quest of four major postseason titles.

The NCAA tourney for major schools starts tomorrow with 24 entries. The NCAA Small College Division Tournament, its ranks reduced from 32 to 8, settles the issue at Evansville, Ind., starting Wednesday. The National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics Tournament (NAIA) gets under way today at Kansas City with 32 entries.

Thursday the National Invitation Tournament, with 12 teams, opens at Madison Square Garden.

Actually 26 schools still are running for the big NCAA affair since two conferences ended in a tie. Oregon State and California, who ended Pacific Coast Conference play with 12-4 records, play it off at Eugene, Ore., tonight. Regional Cage Tests To Be Rare Battles

16 Teams Remain In Both Class A, AA; State Finals Sought

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Several of Ohio's regional high school basketball games this week would be classics if the state championship were at stake.

Probably the finest array of talent in Class AA history is wrapped up in the 16 regionalists—and some snug finishes are in prospect before the victors are decided Saturday night.

The Class AA contingent, survivors of 387 starters, have won 291 games and lost 57. But six of them have combined for 131 conquests and no losses.

In Class A, where the "sweet 16" have won 337 and lost 50, there are three unbeaten quintets.

The unsullied Class AA teams are Cincinnati St. Xavier with 23; defending champion Middletown, Zanesville, Columbus North and Cleveland East Tech with 22, and Toledo Scott with 20.

In Class A the clean quintets are Dixie of Montgomery County and Northwestern of Holmes County with 25, and Bucyrus Holmes-Liberty with 22.

Columbus North and Toledo Scott meet Friday at Marion, slashing the unbeaten group to five in Class AA, but there's a good chance four of the unblemished teams will reach the state tournament.

Middletown and St. Xavier are in the Cincinnati Regional, but can't meet before Saturday, while East Tech is in the Berea playoffs and Zanesville at Kent. Middletown, seeking its 75th straight win, goes against Chillicothe (18-5) Friday, while St. Xavier plays Dayton Fairview (16-7). Fairview finished tied for seventh in the Dayton city league, but topped some fine talent in reaching the regional.

The six unbeaten teams in Class AA, along with once-beaten Elvira, were all in the top 10 of the final Associated Press poll of sports writers. If four of them reach the state tournament it will be the first time the judgment of the voting scribes has been fully vindicated.

Only Dixie of the Class A top 10 is still in the running, the others of the poll's elite being among the 630 teams ousted in the lose-and-out series.

Middletown, winner of seven state titles since 1944, Zanesville's 1926 and 1955 kings, and Columbus East's 1951 winners, are among the Class AA hopefuls, while Columbiana (1947) and Arcanum (1948) are back for another try in Class A.

Just half the Class AA field repeated as regional qualifiers from last year, but only Holmes-Liberty (22-0) and Newark St. Francis (18-6) made it in the smaller school division. Back from last season among the big schools are Middletown, Columbus North, Lima, Cleveland Cathedral Latin, Elvira, Cleveland East Tech, Zanesville and Chillicothe. Of that group Cathedral Latin and Middletown made it to the state tournament.

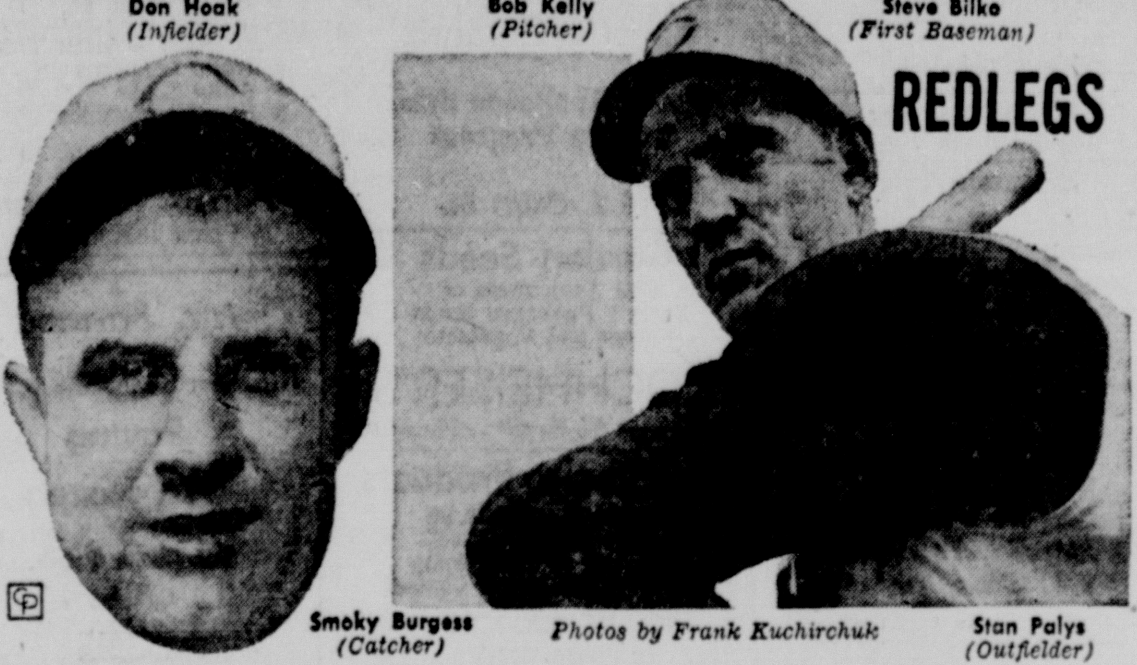

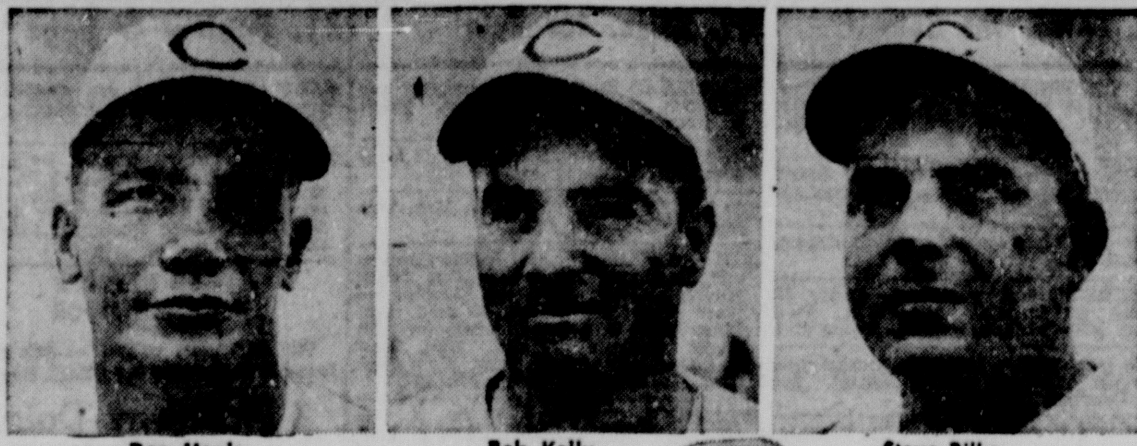

Regional play opens Wednesday in Class AA as Cathedral Latin meets Columbus East at Berea, and Cuyahoga Falls tangles with Wooster and Kent. Thursday games send East Tech against Elvira at Berea, and Zanesville against Akron St. Vincent at Kent in Class AA, and Centralia against Maysville in Class A at Athens. All other semifinal games are Friday. Finals are scheduled in all eight regions advancing to the state meet here March 21-22.

Following is the complete schedule of pairings for both Class A and Class AA play:

Class AA

Second-ranked West Virginia, Maryland, Indiana and Wyoming earned their big tournament brackets Saturday. West Virginia, perennial winner of the Southern Conference title, did it by beating William and Mary 74-58 in the final of the tournament at Richmond, Maryland succeeded by upsetting the 1957 NCAA titleholder North Carolina Tar Heels 86-76 in the Atlantic Coast Conference final at Raleigh.

Indiana's well-balanced Hoosiers whipped Michigan State 75-72 in a showdown game for the Big Ten title. Wyoming was beaten 75-55 by Montana State but qualified when Utah, headed for the NIT, downed Colorado State University 105-79.

Oregon State could have wrapped up the PCC title without a playoff but bowed to Idaho 62-55. Kansas downed top-ranked Kansas State 61-44. All America Wilt Chamberlain scored 23 points.

Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson, who goes against Kansas State Friday night at Lawrence, all but wrapped up the individual scoring honors although he tallied only 29 points in the third-ranked Bearcats' 80-68 decision over Xavier of Ohio.

Elgin Baylor of Seattle, who meets Bradley tonight before going into tournament play, has a 33.96-point average compared with 34.38 for the Cincinnati ace.

Tebbetts Praises Ex-Al Southpaw

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Southpaw Bill Wight, 36-year-old former American League, allowed only a single during three innings of an exhibition game against Chicago's White Sox Sunday and quickly attracted the interest of Cincinnati Redlegs Manager Birdie Tebbetts.

Tebbetts said, "Looks like he'll

Yanks To Be Hitless Crew?

Bronx Bombers Fail To Show Much Power

Could the proud New York Yankees be turning into a bunch of hitless wonders — and not so wonderful at that.

The Yanks wound up their 1957 business by going 11 scoreless innings against the Milwaukee Braves in the final two games of the World Series.

They opened their exhibition season Saturday by being shut out by the St. Louis Cardinals. Sunday, they finally scored a run, but it wasn't enough, and the Cards won the ball game at St. Petersburg, Fla., 2-1.

Yank Manager Casey Stengel can take a measure of solace in the performance of 19-year-old rookie Daron Johnson.

The Yanks managed only seven hits but two were long doubles by Johnson.

Bonus baby Johnny DeMerit bashed in three runs to lead the Milwaukee Braves to a 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers at Bradenton. Earl Hersh homered for the other run.

In other games, the Cincinnati Redlegs defeated the Chicago White Sox 5-4 at Tampa; the San Francisco Giants whipped the Cleveland Indians 5-1 at Phoenix; the Chicago Cubs licked the Baltimore Orioles 5-4 at Mesa, and the Los Angeles Dodgers edged the Philadelphia Phillies 5-4 at Miami.

The Redlegs blew a three-run lead, but came back to score two runs in the fifth with the aid of a couple of White Sox errors.

Only a two-out home run by Gene Woodling off Marv Grissom saved the Indians from being shut out by the Giants.

Chuck Tanner blasted a grand slam home run for the Cubs in the fourth inning off Chuck Beamon. The Dodgers had to go 11 innings before Felipe Montemayor singled Charlie Neal home from second.

3 Golfers Tied In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Sizzling Ken Venturi faced threats from two unexpected contenders today as he entered the second round of the $20,000 Greater New Orleans Open Tournament tied with two golfers seeking their first titles of the winter tour.

Venturi, 26, of San Francisco, who has won three times this winter, knocked four strokes off par with his 34-34-68 over the soggy City Park course Sunday. But he could do no better than the Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex., and Gene Littler, Singing Hills, Calif.

Bob Hazle Feeling Confident in '58

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—Bob Hazle, whose bat helped rocket the Milwaukee Braves to the pennant last year, is confident he can still hit big league pitching even if some of his employers complain about him.

"Flash in the pan?" drawled the 27-year-old outfielder today. "I don't think so. Sure, I was lucky last year and you can't expect anybody to hit 400 again. But, I know I can hit up here."

Hazle batted .500-plus for the first couple of weeks after the Braves called him up from their Wichita, Kan., farm team July 28. He finished up with a .403.

be able to help us. He's supposed to be a later starter, but he looked good and loose out there today.

"He also has excellent control for a lefty and knows how to change the speed of his pitches, and that's important."

Tebbetts Praises Ex-Al Southpaw

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Southpaw Bill Wight, 36-year-old former American League, allowed only a single during three innings of an exhibition game against Chicago's White Sox Sunday and quickly attracted the interest of Cincinnati Redleg Manager Birdie Tebbetts.

Tebbetts said, "Looks like he'll

Yanks To Be Hitless Crew?

Bronx Bombers Fail To Show Much Power

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Could the proud New York Yankees be turning into a bunch of hitless wonders — and not so wonderful at that.

The Yanks wound up their 1957 business by going 11 scoreless innings against the Milwaukee Braves in the final two games of the World Series.

They opened their exhibition season Saturday by being shut out by the St. Louis Cardinals. Sunday, they finally scored a run, but it wasn't enough, and the Cards won the ball game at St. Petersburg, Fla., 2-1.

Yank Manager Casey Stengel can take a measure of solace in the performance of 19-year-old rookie Daron Johnson.

The Yanks managed only seven hits but two were long doubles by Johnson.

Bonus baby Johnny DeMerit bashed in three runs to lead the Milwaukee Braves to a 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers at Bradenton. Earl Hersh homered for the other run.

In other games, the Cincinnati Redlegs defeated the Chicago White Sox 5-4 at Tampa; the San Francisco Giants whipped the Cleveland Indians 5-1 at Phoenix; the Chicago Cubs licked the Baltimore Orioles 5-4 at Mesa, and the Los Angeles Dodgers edged the Philadelphia Phillies 5-4 at Miami.

The Redlegs blew a three-run lead, but came back to score two runs in the fifth with the aid of a couple of White Sox errors.

Only a two-out home run by Gene Woodling off Marv Grissom saved the Indians from being shut out by the Giants.

Chuck Tanner blasted a grand slam home run for the Cubs in the fourth inning off Chuck Beamon.

The Dodgers had to go 11 innings before Felipe Montemayor singled Charlie Neal home from second.

3 Golfers Tied In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Sizzling Ken Venturi faced threats from two unexpected contenders today as he entered the second round of the $20,000 Greater New Orleans Open Tournament tied with two golfers seeking their first titles of the winter tour.

Venturi, 26, of San Francisco, who has won three times this winter, knocked four strokes off par with his 34-34—68 over the soggy City Park course Sunday. But he could do no better than tie Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex., and Gene Littler, Singing Hills, Calif.

Bob Hazle Feeling Confident in '58

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—Bob Hazle, whose bat helped rocket the Milwaukee Braves to the pennant last year, is confident he can still hit big league pitching even if some of his employers complain about him.

"Flash in the pan?" drawled the 27-year-old outfielder today. "I don't think so. Sure, I was lucky last year and you can't expect anybody to hit 400 again. But, I know I can hit up here."

Hazle batted .500-plus for the first couple of weeks after the Braves called him up from their Wichita, Kan., farm team July 28. He finished up with a .403.

be able to help us. He's supposed to be a later starter, but he looked good and loose out there today.

"He also has excellent control for a lefty and knows how to change the speed of his pitches, and that's important."

Coin Container Placed for Easter Seal Contributions Throughout Pickaway County

The annual Easter Seal campaign, headed this year by veteran Pickaway County Sheriff Charles Radcliff, today was just getting underway.

Seals have been mailed to more than 6,000 persons in Pickaway County. Coin containers have been placed in locations throughout the county. It is expected that donations will start to roll in shortly.

The campaign is for the benefit of the Pickaway County Society for Crippled Children and Adults. Funds from the drive will be used to buy equipment and services for disabled persons in the county.

Today Sheriff Radcliff declared: "Voluntary giving through the annual Easter Seal campaign to help crippled children in Pickaway County is an essential part of the American way of life.

"EACH YEAR we are given the opportunity of lending a helping hand to the crippled through the Easter Seal campaign. Millions of men and women learn first hand about crippled children through the annual campaign and work together to do something tangible to help."

"We hope for the greatest outpouring of support from the public in the history of the Easter Seal Society," the sheriff concluded.

Tornado Alert To Be Given By CD Siren

If you hear the Circleville Civil Defense siren at odd times in the future, be prepared to take cover. However, it still doesn't necessarily mean the United States is being attacked.

Bernard Tait, Civil Defense director, today said that the Federal Communications Commission and the United States Weather Bureau have joined to bring warning of violent storms through the civil defense apparatus.

Tait said that the tornado season for this area is approaching and that, after warnings from the Weather Bureau, the local siren will be blown. He said one long blast will mean to be alert, a series of short blasts over about a three-minute period will mean take cover and a second long blast will be the "all clear".

The siren will be used in cases of imminent tornado, hurricane or flood. Tait will be warned through the conelrad warning system which employs signals from commercial radio and television stations.

Kyger Creek Phone Cable Is Slashed For Second Time

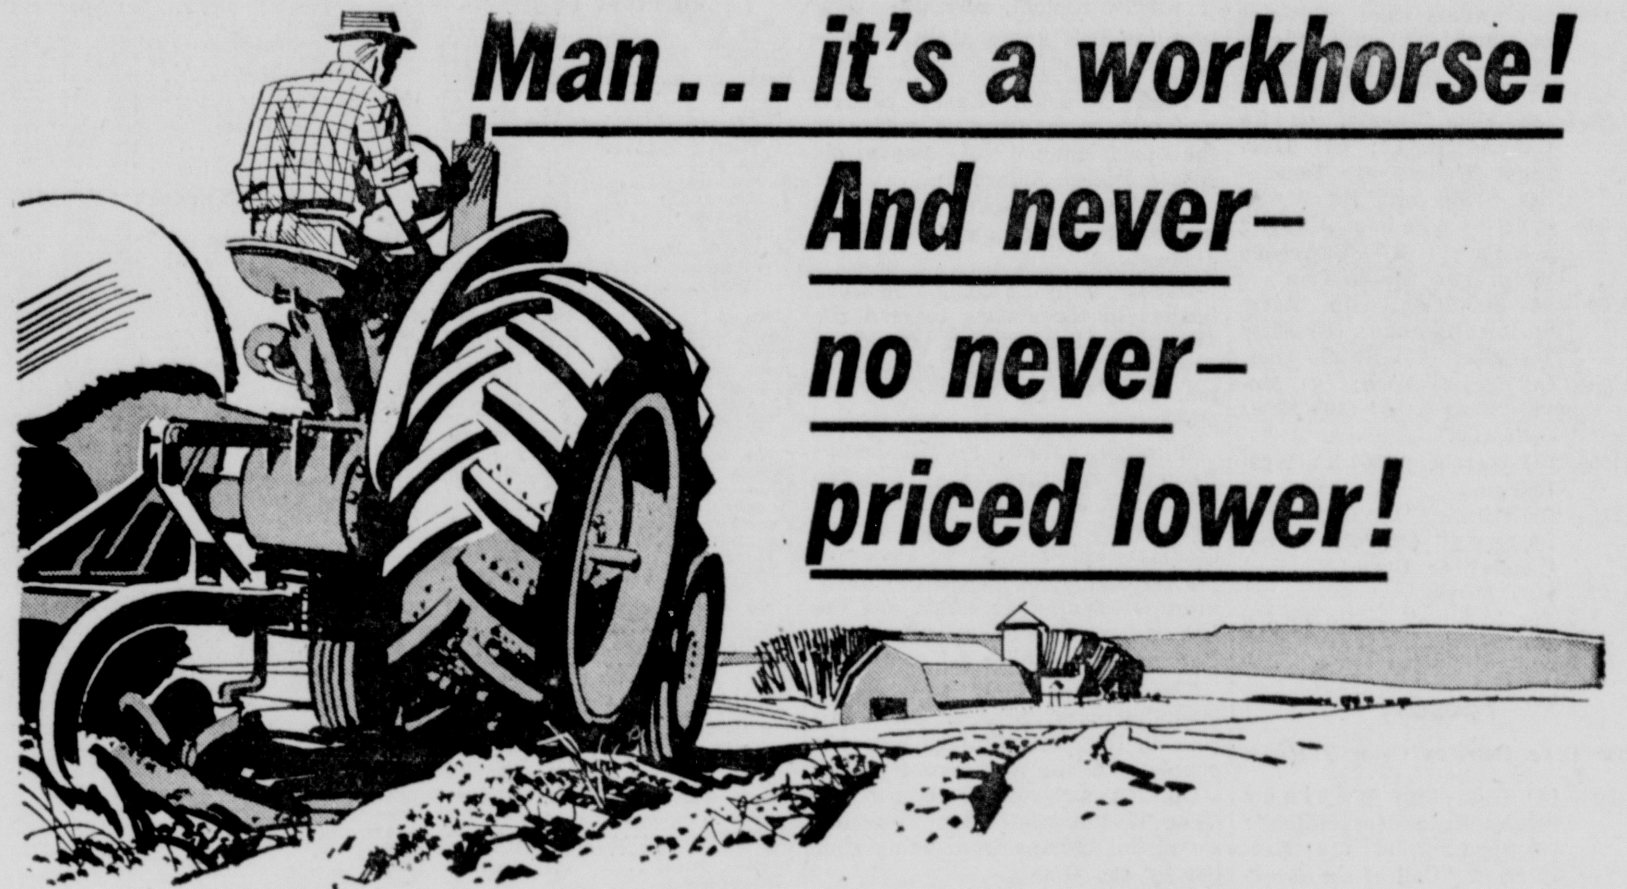

GALLIPOLIS (AP) — The strike-bound Kyger Creek power plant near here was without telephone service for about seven hours Sunday night and early today because of a slashed cable.

James Cox, administrative assistant of the Ohio Valley Electric Corp., reported a cable was slashed near the plant at 11:20 p. m. Sunday and service was restored partially at 6:10 a. m. today.

A large cable was cut last Wednesday and halted telephone service to the plant.

Supervisors are operating the huge plant which supplies power to the atomic energy facility in Pike County. A strike of the Utility Workers Union of America now is in its 15th day.

Kyger Creek Phone Cable Is Slashed For Second Time

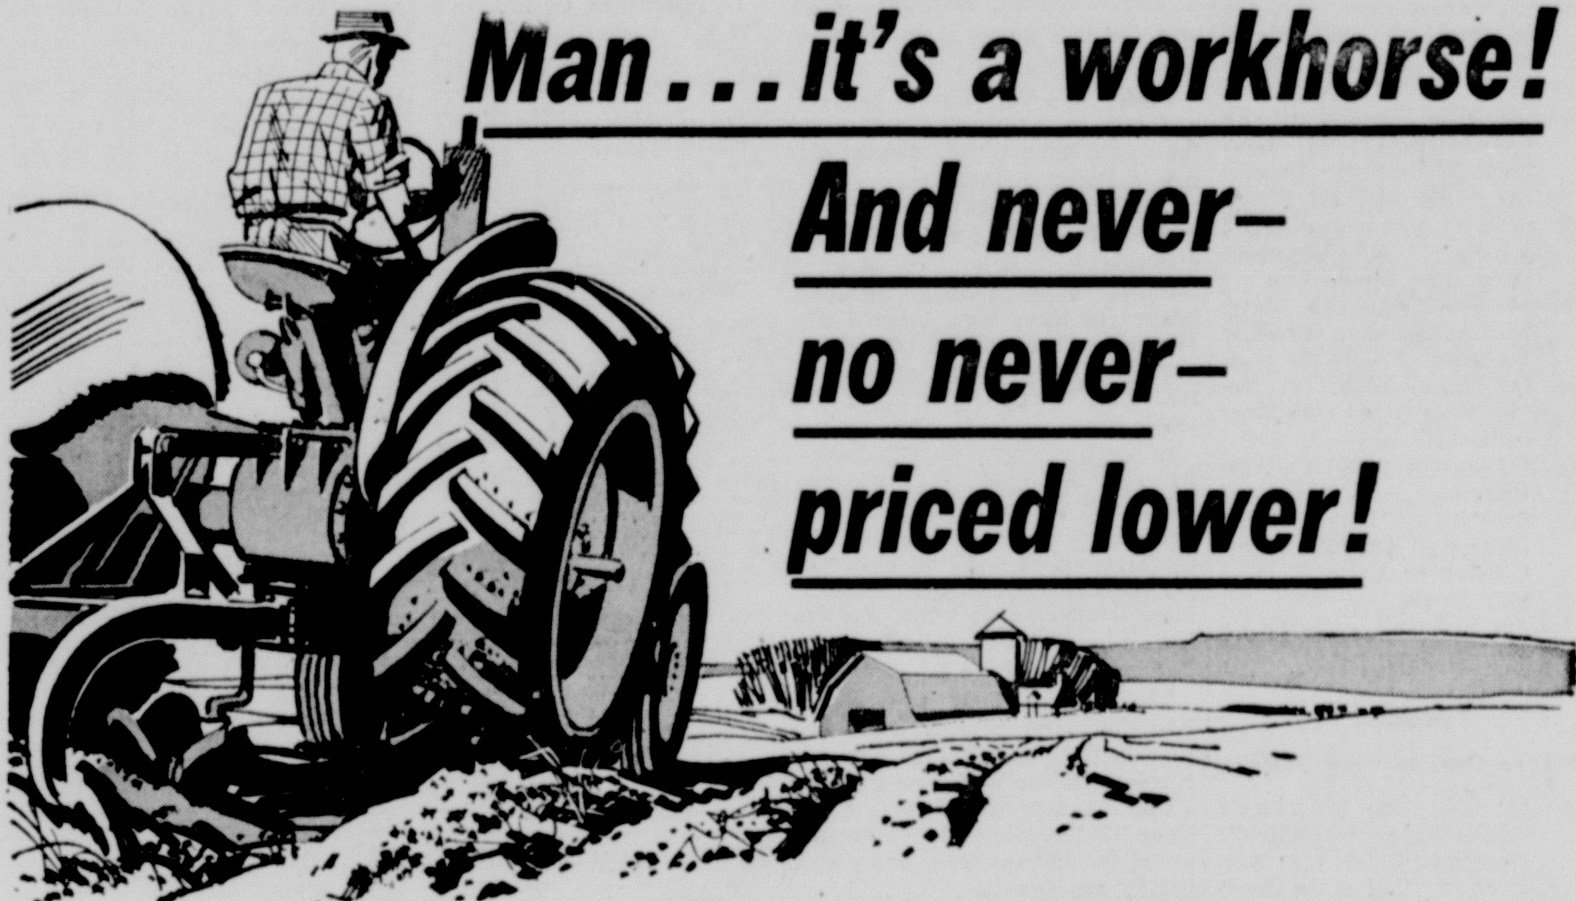

GALLIPOLIS (AP) — The strike-bound Kyger Creek power plant near here was without telephone service for about seven hours Sunday night and early today because of a slashed cable.

James Cox, administrative assistant of the Ohio Valley Electric Corp., reported a cable was slashed near the plant at 11:20 p. m. Sunday and service was restored partially at 6:10 a. m. today.

A large cable was cut last Wednesday and halted telephone service to the plant.

Supervisors are operating the huge plant which supplies power to the atomic energy facility in Pike County. A strike of the Utility Workers Union of America now is in its 15th day.
